

BAPCo® TabletMark® Privacy Policy

After you run this software, you will have the option to submit the results to BAPCo. Results are shared with BAPCo only if you explicitly choose to submit results by clicking "Submit" in the results viewer.

Your results are used by BAPCo to provide a repository of test results that may be used by you and other users around the world to see how your system compares to others.

If you choose to submit test results, the following personal information may be sent to BAPCo and made publicly available.

- General system configuration information (e.g., hardware component model names/numbers, operating system version)
- Project name given at the start of the test
- Company name given at submission time
- BAPCo benchmark scores

If you choose to submit test results, the following personal information may be sent to BAPCo and will be stored in a secure database accessible only to BAPCo. It will not be disclosed or sold to other third parties.

- Unique hardware/software/network identifiers (e.g., hard drive serial number, system UUID, IP address)
- Email address and/or ID associated with app store account
- Contact name, email address and any notes given at submission time

If you do not want this information to be shared with BAPCo, simply refrain from submitting results in the results viewer.

Additionally, when you run this software, the workloads may contact Internet servers to retrieve workload content, including some servers operated by third parties, who may have their own privacy policies. The only personally identifying information these servers can see is your IP address, web browser information and the contents of any relevant cookies stored on your computer by those servers.